Next Generation Professional Development

Short, sharp introductory level programs aimed at the next generation including students. These programs will give you the skills and confidence to excel in your work, study, business or personal life. Josh Farr from Campus Consultancy is an experienced facilitator who will guide you through an interactive online workshop. These programs are fully funded thanks to Coalition Governments 5 Million Leadership in Agricultural Industries Fund – and our co-contributors in Rice Marketing Board of NSW, Agrifutures Australia and SunRice.

Rice Industry Leadership Program

01 Time Management

Registrations close:
Thursday 17 September

How do you determine what is relevant to you and your business/work/study to ensure good time management? With so much in the news and iPhones full of distractions, it's easy to lose hours in the day! In fact, did you know that between news, social media, on-demand streaming, and checking email, the average person loses more than 21 hours per week? (Inc, 2018) This workshop will help you master your time and keep your eyes on the prize for your work and your business.

Also in this workshop, you will learn not just how to set S.M.A.R.T.(E.R.) goals for yourself, your business and your work-life, but also the psychology behind goal-setting, how to motivate yourself & transform dreams into results. You will take action in real-time in the workshop & see how much can be achieved in all aspects of your life. Outcomes:

- Reduce the stress and anxiety from procrastination,
- Analyse your weekly effectiveness/efficiency using our online TIME168 Tool,
- Reflect, analyse and plan for the following week with our 60&RAP formula,
- Identify the 8 major categories of goal-setting
- Master the psychology of goal setting
- Develop S.M.A.R.T.(E.R.) goals for 2020 & beyond
- Calibrate your calendar to represent your high-priority goals and actions
- Create a 10-day plan of action to bring your goals to life

02 Communication skills

Registrations close:
Thursday 1 October

In this workshop, you will practice the skills to compel customers, clients, partners and employers to engage with you on a personal level, understand your motivations & be moved to act on your 'ask.' You can take this skillset to social platforms such as LinkedIn, Youtube or podcasting to build your 'personal brand.'

If you want to stand out as a great communicator in your business and your industry, one of the top skills to master is the skill of confident communication. This workshops will show you how to create 10-types of digital marketing, a 3-layer marketing strategy and how to design each piece of content to empower the audience to think, feel and act in specific ways. If you are ready to take your digital communication to the next level, and deepen relationships with your clients, this workshop is for you.

- Identify techniques of effective communication in all speakers you admire
- Model effective communicators
- Identify your unique communication strengths & style
- Develop your understanding of personal branding and why it is crucial in a 2020+ workforce
